muh boi LeatherIceCream made this. 10/10 gud game best game.. Good, tough escape room. I hope they get that hint system done!. 6.99 for 20 minutes of gameplay isnt worth it for me. While this game does deserve multiple plays it isnt worth the price of the game as even multiple playthroughs seem far to similar to each other.. Just another time waster. Interesting but wait for a big discount before you buy unless your really into this kind of game.. probs best fighting game i played, and as a dbz fan it makes it even better, but please no more gokus. <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXN-fMrzIsWkJaBgq5AdBOA>

This is vein hotel, a psychological horror game made by the venerable \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665PP314. which translates to '\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665PP314.' I'm not joking.

Vein Hotel isn't some thrown together game guru\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 I mean, it is thrown together, but it's got some ideas as well.

Well, just one idea actually: it's about bullying essentially. You're play as a school boy that\u2019s stuck in a nightmare where the bully keeps following you around and there's no way out and the teacher can't help you.

The bully looks like a bigger version of you though, and there's some ginger kid that crops up too so I think it might be some kind of hellish punishment style thing for the player character for being a\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665to the ginge. I don\u2019t know, at least it's got some kind of story underlying it, which automatically makes it 10 times better than most steam new releases trash.

But! Is it scary? Uh, no not really, its jumpy cause of all the jumpscare and chairy cause of the chair scares and nightmare cause of the screen tears but I wouldn\u2019t call it scary. It has got some weirdass visuals which I can always appreciate though. I mean there's not a terribly large amount of effort put into the details but most of its effective enough.

It didn\u2019t make me angry playing it which is always nice. Well for the first part at least, once I got to the maze section I became immensely bored and frustrated. You have to find 8 of these billboard things and my god it took me \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665in half an hour. And it\u2019s a real shame too cause up until that point the game had been blistering along at an excellent pace. I was almost impressed actually.

But, they had to screw it up didn't they? Sigh. There is honestly nothing worse than a maze designed by an idiot. Oh wait no, I take that back, a platforming section designed by an idiot is far, far worse and the maze is followed immediately by just such a thing...

Oh vein hotel, you were almost playable. This was so close to being a recommendation but I can't in good conscience point people towards this game knowing how tedious it is when you get to the maze. I can't overemphasise it. You almost had it vein hotel, then you decided to be garbage like the rest of the steam new releases. :\(I just got my Vive and wanted to explore a relaxing enviroment. That's exactly what I got, it's happy, a little spooky but in a inviting way. The atmosphere makes it clear the game is glad to have you here. It's like going on a imaginary adventure when your a kid, everything is so happy and at your own pace.

My recommendation is to not try to "beat" this game, instead take your time and enjoy it. There is no rush, and if you try to rush through the game you'll be left with a source taste in your mouth because the game is so short. But if you instead really take everything in you'll get a nice walk through a friendly cavern.

. Fun with friends.. Pleasant enough. You get to ride down a river \(good water graphics\) while looking at tree covered hills \(average graphics even with clarity turned up\), but if you set the time of day to dusk you really dont notice.

The only thing letting it down is the music. It sounds like something you would get at the end of a really emotional movie, you know the one where they saved the world but one of the main characters died.... anyway you cannot turn it off and it is on perpetual loop. Spoils the serenity of the thing.

Will play with this occasionally on mute, and pipe some classical music thru my stereo instead.... Hi there. I bought this product from Steam on 22 Septemebr 2015 and it is successfully installed in the Steam Library. However, when I load Friday Harbor, the runway is non-existent and on take-off the aircraft is buried completely in sand with no sign of any updated graphics anywhere in the airport area as advertised. I have been trying absolutely everything to find a solution to the problem and even applied for a refund from Steam, which was refused as I exceed the time limitation.

I am very disappointed to say the least but, would appreciate advice on how the problem can be resolved as I would really like to get the programme up and running correctly. Maybe a complete reinstallation of the product could be the answer.

I look forward to a reply asap.

Regards

Doug Welsh

Very charming little platformer. I spent hours roaming the world of the game, getting all the achievements, and finding all the numerous secrets it hides.

I learnt about the game on Twitch where the developer (very cool guy) worked on the game live, which is very interesting to watch.

There's a scoreboard for the fastest completion time. I have the record at the time of this writing. Try to beat me!. The changes to the music is absolutely minimal, ill-suited for the time period, and has dubstep. Enough said.. Absolutely boring. I gave up at the opening.. I know I haven't played for much but this game is truly \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665ing amazing. Alpha & Early Access but really nice, good job guys. But one thing to mention tho, the walls; they completely stop me ability from seeing my character and it's kinda annoying.. I absolutely love this game, completley worth the money, amazing content and visually entertaining. Everything about this game is amazing in my opinion. The only thing I would love to see added is an option for more "realistic zombies" so they atleast have 3D cardboard models and walk with lets and hand movements, then the game would be the best VR game hands down.. Remember good old Breakout? Simple bat and ball games, clearing the screen of all blocks with that ball?

Well this is that game with lots of twists! Satisfying and fun to play, nice mechanics letting you change the direction of the ball a little, a special emergency weapon thing to help clear out pesky blocks, and even bosses! Also nice techno/electrical music to go along with it.

So if you like Breakout games with a twist, give this one a look!. Its worth a dollar.. enter room .. no one there .. start looting a bag\closet\box .. next sec someone hit me from back ... press esc to stop looting .. another hit ... switch to club... another hit ... turn around .. another hit ... you`re dead ... god(devs) create zombies from air in a sec you start looting in EMPTY room ... and that sh.. happening last year or more .. still did not fix that ... i love this game but this bug is frustrating ... and of course zombies are like ninjas .. move silently till they hit you, and then start screaming ... i realize this is a game but put some reality in it for god sake Constantly crashes and definitely not worth the money. Some of the cards don't work like they should, ignoring the rules or not working when they should. Nine times out of ten the AI will draw the same few cards in the first turn, making them feel horribly scripted and unfair.

If you want to buy this game anyways - here my advice:

do not start it right after a crash (it will happen once every 10-20 min) and don't play against the same duelist twice in a row - that will make things even worse, crashing the game within the first two turns...
